Defendants.

CASE NO. C11-5424 BHS

ORDER GRANTING IN PART
AND DENYING IN PART
KRAUSE'S MOTION FOR
SUMMARY JUDGMENT

This matter comes before the Court on Defendant Sharon Krause's ("Krause") second motion for summary judgment (Dkt. 139). The Court has considered the pleadings filed in support of and in opposition to the motion and the remainder of the file and hereby grants in part and denies in part the motion for the reasons stated herein.

I. PROCEDURAL HISTORY

On June 2, 2012, Plaintiffs Clyde Ray Spencer (“Mr. Spencer”) and his two children, Matthew Ray Spencer (“Matthew”) and Kathryn E. Tetz (“Kathryn”), filed a complaint against Krause, a former detective for the Clark County Sheriff’s Office (“Sheriff’s Office”) and five other named Defendants, including John and Jane Does 1 through 10. Dkt. 1.

1 The lawsuit alleges state tort claims and violations of federal civil rights. Dkt. 1 at 2 45-67. Mr. Spencer alleges seven causes of action under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 (“§ 1983”), 3 plus four state law claims. Id. at 45-65. His federal claims are for malicious prosecution, 4 deprivation of due process, “destruction or concealment of exculpatory evidence,” 5 conspiracy, “failure to intervene, false arrest, and false imprisonment” and conspiracy. Id.
 6 at 45-58, 289-349. His state law claims are for malicious prosecution, intentional
 7 infliction of emotional distress (“IIED”), conspiracy, and defamation. Id. at 59-65, 350-8 82. These federal and state claims are alleged against all Defendants except Shirley 9 Spencer, who is a named Defendant only as to Mr. Spencer’s § 1983 conspiracy claim 10 and his state law claims for IIED and conspiracy. See id. Kathryn and Matthew allege 11 state law claims for loss of consortium. Id. at 66-67, 383-9. Their claims are alleged 12 against all Defendants, except Ms. Spencer. Id.

13 On May 23, 2012, Krause filed a motion for summary judgment. Dkt. 65. On June 14 18, 2012, Plaintiffs filed a response to Krause’s motion and requested a continuance. Dkt.
 15 72. On June 22, 2012, Krause filed a reply. Dkt. 83. On July 2, 2012, Plaintiffs filed a 16 surreply. Dkt. 87.

17 On October 16, 2012, the Court issued an order granting in part and denying in 18 part Krause’s motion for summary judgment and Spencer’s motion to continue. Dkt. 93.
 19 In that order, the Court dismissed all state law claims against Krause, permitted Spencer
 20 to pursue further discovery on all § 1983 claims, consistent with the findings the Court 21 had made, and denied without prejudice Krause’s request for summary judgment based 22 on qualified immunity. See id. at 27-28.

1 On January 16, 2013, Krause filed the instant motion for summary judgment. Dkt.
 2 139. On March 21, 2013, Spencer filed a response in opposition to Krause's motion.
 3 Dkt. 166. On April 12, 2013, Krause filed a reply brief.<sup>1</sup> Dkt. 171.

4 II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

5 As multiple Court orders reflect, this case has a rather extensive background
 6 involving allegations that take place over the span of almost thirty years. In 1985, by way 7 of an Alford plea, Mr. Spencer was convicted of multiple counts of sexually abusing his 8 children Matthew, then age nine, and Kathryn, then age six, and his step-son Matthew 9 Hansen ("Hansen"), then age five, and sentenced to life in prison. Dkt. 1 at 6; 63-8; & 63-
 10 9. Subsequently, Mr. Spencer filed numerous petitions with the state and federal courts 11 challenging his arrest, conviction, and incarceration.

12 A. Initial Allegations

13 Mr. Spencer is a former police officer of the Vancouver Police Department 14 ("VPD"). Dkt. 63-3 at 2. In the summer of 1984, while he was employed by the VPD, 15 Mr. Spencer and his now former wife, Shirley Spencer ("Shirley"), and Hansen were 16 visited by Kathryn and Matthew, children from his prior marriage to DeAnne Spencer 17 ("DeAnne"). Dkt. 1 at 6-7. Upon Mr. Spencer's return from a seminar, Shirley advised 18 him that Kathryn made inconsistent allegations of sexual abuse, including ones against 19 him. Id. at 7 & 63 at 2. The allegations were reported to Child Protective Services

 Krause and Michael Davidson.

1 (“CPS”) in Vancouver, Washington and to CPS in Sacramento, California, where the 2 children resided with their biological mother, DeAnne. Id.

3 On August 29, 1984, Detective P. Flood (“Flood”) of the Sacramento County 4 Sheriff’s Department, due to a referral from Sacramento CPS regarding allegations of 5 abuse by Kathryn Spencer, made contact by phone with Mr. Spencer and Shirley. Dkt.
6 158 at 5-9. In his report, Flood records telephonic interviews with Mr. Spencer and 7 Shirley. Id. In part, Flood indicates that Shirley reported to him that Kathryn had 8 disclosed allegations of sexual abuse by her father, including, for example, that “daddy 9 wanted me to rub his pee pee and he rubbed [mine]” and that “she sat on her father’s lap 10 with her father’s penis between her legs.” Id. at 9. Shirley also told Flood that Kathryn 11 reported that “[s]he put it in her mouth and he tried to put his penis into her pee pee but it
12 hurt.” Id. Additionally, Shirley reported that Kathryn told her about her “daddy kissing 13 her on her pee pee” and that it happened “lots of times.” Id. Shirley also told Flood that 14 Kathryn had made allegations against her mother DeAnne, including that “her mom 15 wanted her to rub her titties and pee pee.” Id. According to Flood’s report, Shirley told 16 him that Kathryn had made these allegations while they were lying on the floor watching 17 television and Kathryn “kept moving my bathrobe … to expose my breasts and one time 18 she put her hand too far down toward the vaginal area,” which Shirley told Kathryn was 19 unacceptable. Id. Then, Kathryn said to Shirley “‘rub my pee pee’” because it “‘fe[els] 20 good.’” Id. Flood’s report indicates that he told Shirley and Mr. Spencer to contact their 21 local law enforcement so that they could both be interviewed by those authorities. Id. at 22 10.

1 On that same day, Flood interviewed Kathryn, Matthew and DeAnne in person.

2 Id. at 11-14. Flood's report indicates that Kathryn stated, among other things, that

3 DeAnne only touches her "potty" when she is putting medicine on it. Id. at 11. Flood

4 also indicates Kathryn reported that "she did tell Shirley everything that Shirley advised

5 me of but then when asked to explain it or asked specific questions about it, [Kathryn]

6 would say that she couldn't remember the words so she couldn't tell me." Id. Flood's

7 report also states that he asked Kathryn "if someone told her not to tell about it and she

8 indicated by shaking her head yes." Id. He further states that "[w]hen asked if someone

9 had touched her pee pee she shook her head yes and when asked who, she would say

10 daddy and then a few moments later she said not daddy, no one." Id. Finally, Flood's

11 report states that Kathryn indicated that "her and her father played a game but she didn't 12 want to talk about the game." Id.

13 Unlike Kathryn, Matthew indicated to Flood that he knew nothing about Kathryn's

14 alleged abuse and denied his father or mother touched him inappropriately. Id. at 12.

15 Among other information, Flood's report states that Matthew indicated that his sister told 16 stories and changed her stories. Id.

17 When interviewing DeAnne, Flood's report indicates in part that she knew nothing

18 of these allegations. Id. at 13. She denied inappropriately touching Kathryn. Id. at 14.

19 DeAnne also indicated that her sister told her that she worried about Kathryn and Ray,

20 stating to DeAnne that "something was not right but she couldn't elaborate what." Id. at 21 13. Flood's report also notes that DeAnne told him that she had not had a man stay in the 22 house for a long time, and there had been a "man that was there and bothered the children

1 so [she] would not let a man stay in the house any longer." Id. DeAnne indicated that 2 she never left the children alone with a man. Id.

3 B. Additional Investigation, Initial Charges & Arrest

4 On August 30, 1984, Officer R. Stephenson ("Officer Stephenson") of the Clark
5 County Sheriff's Office was dispatched to contact Mr. Spencer regarding Kathryn's 6 allegations of child abuse. Dkt. 64-1. Officer Stephenson went to Mr. Spencer's home in 7 Washington. Id. at 2. At that time, Shirley provided a six-page handwritten statement 8 detailing the allegations that Kathryn relayed to her on August 24, 1984. Among the 9 many details, Shirley writes that Kathryn wanted her to "rub her pee pee" which Kathryn 10 said "felt good." Id. at 4-5. Shirley records that Kathryn told her she did this with her 11 mother and Karen Stone, a former girlfriend of her father. Id. at 5-6. According to 12 Shirley's statement, Kathryn described oral sex with her father and stated that he placed 13 his penis between her legs and tried to insert it "in her little hole" but stopped when they 14 realized "it was too big." Id. at 8-9. Shirley also stated that Kathryn told her that her 15 father told her "not to tell." Id. at 8.

16 After Shirley's report was referred to Sacramento, California CPS and law
17 enforcement cleared DeAnne of sex abuse allegations, the investigation was referred back 18 to Clark County, Washington. Dkt. 138-10 at 25. In October 1984, Krause, a detective 19 was assigned to investigate the Spencer case. Id. at 6. Defendant Michael Davidson
20 ("Davidson"), also a detective with the Clark County Sheriff's Office, was Krause's 21 supervisor and the sergeant of the unit. Id.

1 On October 16, 1984, five-year-old Kathryn was interviewed by Krause, who 2 made a written report of Kathryn's allegations of sexual abuse by her father. Dkt. 138-11
3 & 12 at 1-5. In Krause's report of her interview with Kathryn, in which she used 4 anatomically correct dolls, Kathryn described an incident very similar to what Shirley 5 described Kathryn had engaged in on the night that Kathryn made the alleged disclosures 6 to Shirley. See id. Krause records that Kathryn described how she touched Shirley on 7 the breasts and stated the "pee pee got touched too," indicating that she touched Shirley's 8 genitals. Id. at 33. According to Krause, Kathryn said Shirley indicated she didn't like it.
9 Id. Krause also records that Kathryn said this happened when she told Shirley about "a 10 secret about my daddy's wiener." Id. Among other details, Krause's report further states 11 that Kathryn indicated that her father placed his penis in her mouth and engaged in oral 12 sex with her. Dkt. 138-12 at 1. In Krause's report, she also indicates Kathryn stated that 13 her father told her not to tell anybody, and she said she lied to Shirley about anyone else 14 touching her. Id. at 3.

15 On October 18, 1984, Krause also interviewed DeAnne. Dkt. 138-12. In Krause's
16 interview report, she states, among other information, that DeAnne described sexualized
17 behaviors in which Kathryn engaged after returning from visits with her father in 1983 18 and 1984, including, for example, masturbation, touching her brother Matthew's penis in 19 the bathtub, playing under the covers naked with her cousin Danny. Id. at 10-12.
20 According to Krause's report, DeAnne also related that "during the meeting with 21
22

1 Detective Flood and also with Katie's<sup>2</sup> therapist, Katie apparently was not indicating 2 anymore than there had been something sexual between her and her father." Id. at 8.

3 On the same day, October 18, 1984, Krause interviewed Kathryn a second time.
 4 Dkt. 138-12 at 28-39. In addition to some of the same disclosures referenced in the 5 above paragraph, Krause reports that Kathryn, using both anatomically correct dolls as 6 well as verbal language, told Krause that her father "tried to sick his big wiener in my 7 pee-pee, but he did that once;" that "I would have to kiss his wiener;" he "makes me 8 touch his pee-pee;" and kisses her vagina. Id. at 36.

9 Arthur Curtis ("Curtis"), the then-elected Clark County Prosecutor (Dkt. 138-4 at 10 3), assigned James M. Peters ("Peters") as the prosecutor in the Spencer case. Id. at 7. In 11 late November 1984, the Clark County Prosecutor's office sent the Spencer file for 12 review to King County Prosecutor, Rebecca Roe ("Roe"). Dkt. 137 at 3 (January 15, 13 2013 Roe Declaration). The purpose of Roe's review was to provide an opinion 14 concerning whether criminal charges of child rape should be filed against Mr. Spencer.
 15 Id. at 4. The Spencer file was sent to King County for review in part because Mr.
 16 Spencer was then employed as a police officer with the Vancouver, Washington Police 17 Department, which is located in Clark County. Id.

18 The file Roe reviewed contained the reports by Sacramento law enforcement 19 officers and the Clark County Sheriff's Office reports concerning allegations of sexual 20 abuse made by Kathryn to Shirley. Id. at 3. Also included in the file were narrative 21

22 <sup>2</sup> DeAnne is referring to Kathryn as "Katie."

1 reports prepared by Krause, which documented her interviews with Kathryn on October 2 16 and 18, 1984, as well as the August 30, 1984 report which included the narrative 3 written by Shirley after Kathryn disclosed the allegations of abuse to her. Id. at 3-4. On 4 November 27, 1984, Roe concluded that the case was not “fivable” due to problems with 5 what Kathryn had said, may not be willing to say, or may not be competent to testify to at 6 trial. Id. For example, inconsistencies in Kathryn’s statements, her reluctance to talk 7 about abuse, and Kathryn’s statements about rubbing Shirley in combination with other 8 statements created questions of “fact v. fantasy,” which Roe indicated was “built in 9 reasonable doubt,” all factored into Roe’s recommendation. Id. at 1-3. While Roe opined 10 that the case was “unwinnable,” she also stated “I believe the child was clearly abused 11 and probably by the defendant....” Id. at 3.

12 On December 11, 1984, Peters interviewed Kathryn. Dkt. 138-17 (Videotape 13 Transcript). The interview was videotaped. Id. & 96 (DVD of Interview). Peters has 14 testified that this interview was performed at the direction of Curtis in Peters’s function 15 as a deputy prosecutor whose role “was to determine and relay back to the prosecuting 16 attorney impressions as to whether she might be found competent should charges be 17 brought” and whether she could relate the allegations back to him. Dkt. 138-6 at 4, 6 and 18 8. Although Curtis did not explicitly state that he directed Peters to interview Kathryn, 19 Curtis was Peters’s supervisor and in Curtis’s deposition he did state “we definitely 20 weren’t going to make a filing decision until [Peters] had interviewed the child.” Dkt.
21 138-4 at 17. Additionally, regarding Peters’s interview of Kathryn, Curtis was asked and 22 answered the following in deposition:

1           Q: ... Was the purpose of that interview to assist in making the 2 decision whether or not to file charges?

3           A: Yes, because although we certainly respected what Ms. Roe had 4 to say, she did not actually interview Katie in coming to a conclusion. She 5 only reviewed the police report. So we felt it would be very important for 6 Mr. Peters to actually interview her, see whether he agreed with Ms. Roe's 7 assessment or whether he thought the case was prosecutable.

8           Dkt. 138-5 at 3-4. While Curtis does not recall viewing the video before filing charges, he 9 relied in part on Peters's evaluation of Kathryn in making his charging decision. Dkt.
10 168-11 at 11.

11           During Peters's interview with Kathryn, DeAnne was present throughout. Dkts.
12 137-17 at 1-34. DeAnne maintains that in her presence there was "no discussion about 13 what Katie was to say" during the sixty-six minute break in the interview, which is not 14 recorded, and there is no indication that Kathryn was ever out of DeAnne's presence 15 during the break. Dkt. 168-13 at 50. The interview itself reveals that the information 16 about Spencer's alleged sexual conduct with Kathryn, which the child communicated 17 largely through non-verbal means (e.g. nodding of the head and demonstration of events 18 through the use of anatomically correct dolls) was cumulative of and consistent with what 19 Krause and Shirley had already reported as Kathryn having alleged. See Dkt. 96 and 20 138-17.

21           Although Peters had "serious reservations" about filing charges 22 against Spencer, Curtis has testified that it was "my call," and stated that "I 23 felt like it was going to be a tough case and the buck ultimately stopped 24 with me as the elected prosecutor, and I was willing to sign the information 25 knowing that fact." Dkt. 138-5 at 1. When asked during his deposition why 26 he filed the charges against Spencer, despite some of the problems with 27 proof in the case, Curtis stated:

28           Well, I knew that it was a tough case. At the time I knew that Mr.
29 Peters had some reservations about filing it, even after his interview with

1 Katie Spencer. Obviously, Becky Roe had reservations, as well.... The 2 thing that kept coming back to me was the part of her letter, Rebecca Roe's 3 letter to us on page 3 where she says here: There are several problems.
 4 Although I believe [the] child was clearly abused and probably by the 5 defendant, the case is unwinnable even assuming you can get the child to 6 ... talk.

7 I did not come to the decision to file this case lightly. I felt like there 8 were some problems with the case, but it was my policy as the elected 9 prosecutor to take an aggressive stand in my county towards child abusers.
 10 And the fact that Becky Roe concluded the child was abused, allegations 11 were against this specific defendant, I decided that that's what juries are 12 for....

13 That's the posture I had on many of these sex abuse cases in Clark 14 County over the years..... [I]f we could win or get convictions on these 15 types of cases even 50 percent of the time, we were doing a service to the 16 criminal justice system and our community.

17 Dkt. 138-4 at 39-40. Upon review of and reliance on all the police reports and allegations
 18 contained therein, his conversation with Krause as to her assessment of Kathryn, Peters's
 19 assessment of Kathryn, and potentially the report of Roe itself or at least Peters's 20 representation thereof, Curtis made his decision to charge Mr. Spencer. Dkt. 168-11 at 21 11 and 14. On January 2, 1985, Curtis charged Mr. Spencer with two counts of sexually 22 abusing Kathryn; he was arrested and then released on his personal recognizance. Dkt.
 138-5 at 29.

17 After Curtis filed the initial charges against Mr. Spencer, the record reflects that 18 on January 9, 1985, Curtis sent a letter to the chief of police asking that a special 19 prosecutor from King County be assigned the case, as he mistakenly thought that Mr.
 20 Spencer was still employed by VPD. Dkt. 138-4 at 31. Barbara Linde ("Linde"), a 21 prosecutor from King County was assigned to the case, and the King County Prosecutor's 22 Office was involved in the case until around April 4, 1985. See Dkt. 138-4 at 5-7 & 138-

1 5 at 22 and 26. However, Peters intermittently continued to be involved in the case as it 2 developed until the Clark County Prosecutor's Office reassumed full responsibility for 3 the prosecution in late April or early May 1985. See, e.g., Dkt. 138-5 at 26-27.

4 C. Additional Facts, Allegations, Further Charges & Plea

5 On February 3, 1985, Clark County deputies responded to a domestic disturbance 6 at the Spencer residence; Krause was informed of this by Deputy Don Kerr. Dkt. 172 at 7 18-19. The uncontested record indicates that, after this disturbance, Spencer moved 8 out of his residence with Shirley, and Krause was informed of this information by 9 Detective Hulse of the VPD. Id. at 19. In Mr. Spencer's complaint he indicates that after 10 the abuse allegations surfaced, he was separated from his wife and moved into the 11 Salmon Creek Motel. Dkt. 1 at 17. This is consistent with the information provided to 12 Krause by Detective Hulse. Dkt. 172 at 20.

13 On or about February 16, 1985, Shirley took four-year-old Hansen to the Salmon 14 Creek Motel to stay the night with Mr. Spencer. Dkt. 1 at 17 & 64-3 at 9. On February 15 20, 2013, Krause, at home ill, was phoned by the Sheriff's Office Communications 16 Center that Clark County deputies again responded to a civil disturbance at the Spencer 17 residence regarding a dispute over guns that Mr. Spencer, who was at the house for a 18 birthday celebration, found missing from the gun case, then demanded them from 19 Shirley, who refused to give them to him. Dkt. 172 at 19. Mr. Spencer himself called the 20 Sheriff's Office and requested they be on standby. Id. The uncontested evidence 21 indicates that Krause spoke with Detective Hulse regarding Spencer's release agreement, 22 which confirmed that he had agreed he was to have no weapons. Id.

1 The uncontested evidence in the record further indicates that, on February 21, 2 1985, Krause attempted to make phone contact with Shirley at home, and she found out
3 from the phone company that Shirley's phone was out of order. Id. at 20. On the same
4 day, the uncontested evidence also indicates that Krause asked the Sheriff's Office
5 patrol unit to make a welfare check on Shirley and her family at the Spencer's Lucia Falls 6 Road residence. Id. at 20. Krause was advised by dispatch that Shirley had left for work
7 and the phone was apparently off the hook. Id. Based on that information, Krause 8 phoned Shirley at work, and Shirley returned her call at 4:30 that same day. Id.

9 In Krause's February 22, 1985 report of her February 21, 1985 phone conversation 10 with Shirley, she writes that she told Shirley a number of things. Dkt. 172 at 20-25.
11 During their conversation, Krause indicates that her motivation in sending out officers to 12 do a welfare check was because Krause did not know "what Ray Spencer's state of mind 13 was and also because of the information I had obtained regarding the two disturbances." 14 Id. at 20. Krause's report also indicates that she was also contacting Shirley because she 15 "had not had the opportunity to talk with her since [she] returned from Sacramento," 16 where she had interviewed Kathryn, Matthew and DeAnne. Id. According to the report, 17 Krause made arrangements to meet with Shirley the next day, February 22, 1985, to 18 discuss the status of her investigation. Id. at 20-21.

19 According to Krause's February 22, 1985 report, she met with Shirley on that 20 day. Dkt. 172 at 21-25. In part, Krause's report records that "several times during our 21 conversation Shirley Spencer expressed concerns about her son, [Hansen], and how all of 22 this was affecting him." Id. at 22. Krause records that she told Shirley she would talk

1 with Hansen. Id. at 25. The report indicates that “Shirley Spencer advised me that she 2 would talk with her therapist and get back to me regarding my interviewing [Hansen].”
3 Id. Additionally, Krause’s report indicates that Shirley said she would consider having 4 Krause interview Hansen, and Krause said she would contact Shirley during the “first 5 part of next week.” Id.

6 On February 26, 1985, the Tuesday of the following week, Krause contacted 7 Shirley by phone. Dkt. 168-12 at 5. Based on that phone conversation and two follow-up 8 interviews (on February 27 and 28, 1985), one with Shirley and one with Hansen, Krause
9 drafted an approximately 22-page report purporting to reflect what Shirley and Hansen
10 reported regarding Spencer’s abuse of Hansen, Kathryn and Matthew. Dkt. 168-12 at 4-11 25 and 64-3.

12 In her February 28, 1985 report, Krause indicates that during their conversation on 13 February 22, 1985, Shirley indicated that “there had been a couple of occasions when she 14 briefly asked her son, [Hansen about Spencer inappropriately touching him], and that 15 [Hansen] was not indicating that anything has ever occurred sexually between he [sic] 16 and Ray Spencer.” Dkt. 168-12 at 5. However, during Krause’s follow-up phone call to 17 Shirley on February 26, 1985, she thought that “Ray might have done something to 18 [Hansen].” Id. Among other information, Krause’s report also indicates that Shirley 19 advised her that Hansen said “daddy had done something but it was too gross and he 20 didn’t want to talk about it.” Id. at 6.

21 On February 27, 1985, Krause interviewed Shirley in person. Dkt. 168-12. In her 22 report, Krause writes that Shirley told Krause that Hansen has disclosed to her that

1 Spencer has physically or sexually abused him on a number of occasions, including at the 2 Salmon Creek Motel. Id. at 10-12. The allegations Shirley told Krause that Hansen had 3 disclosed involved what appear to be descriptions of oral sex and anal penetration. Id. at 4 10 -11. Krause concludes her interview of Shirley with the notation that she has arranged 5 for Shirley to take Hansen to the Sheriff's Office the following morning for an interview.
 6 Id. at 17.

7 On February 28, 1985, Krause interviewed Hansen. Dkt. 1 at 17 & 64-3. In her 8 report, Krause indicated that Hansen alleged Mr. Spencer had committed multiple acts of 9 violent sexual abuse at home and at the Salmon Creek Motel; Hansen also indicated that 10 he witnessed abuse of Kathryn and Matthew and that they were forced to touch each 11 other. Dkt. 1 at 17 & 64-3 at 16-22. On the same day of Hansen's interview, the Clark 12 County Prosecutor's Office, through Peters, filed an amended information charging Mr.
 13 Spencer with three counts of statutory rape of Hansen. Dkt. 63-6. Later that day, Mr.
 14 Spencer was arrested pursuant to a warrant. Dkt. 63-4 & 5. Davidson was one of the 15 arresting officers. Dkt. 1 at 18 & 62 at 5. Although it is disputed as to what the nature of 16 their relationship was and when it began, Davidson and Ms. Spencer became involved, 17 and Krause became aware of his involvement with Ms. Spencer. See, e.g., Dkt. 1 at 21, 18 48 at 3-4, 53 at 4, 63-20 at 13, & 73-1 at 11-14.

19 On March 25, 1985, Krause interviewed nine-year-old Matthew. Dkt. 64-5.
 20 According to Krause's report, after Matthew denied several times that his father abused 21 him, he told Krause that Mr. Spencer abused him, Kathryn, and Hansen and made them 22 touch each other. Id. According to another interview report by Krause, that same day,

1 she re-interviewed Kathryn, who corroborated Matthew and Hansen's statements. Dkt.
 2 64-6. The Clark County Prosecutor's Office, through Peters, filed a second amended 3 information, charging Mr. Spencer with ten counts of first degree statutory rape and six 4 counts of complicity to first degree statutory rape based on the disclosures of all three 5 children. Dkt. 63-6. On May 16, 1985, Mr. Spencer entered an Alford plea of guilty to 6 multiple counts of sexually abusing Matthew, Kathryn and Hansen. Dkt. 1 at 6 & 63-7.

7 D. Mr. Spencer Challenges his Arrest, Conviction and Incarceration

8 During his incarceration, Mr. Spencer filed numerous Personal Restraint Petitions 9 ("PRPs") and appeals therefrom. His challenges involved alleged failures to disclose 10 exculpatory evidence, such as Roe's opinion regarding whether to proceed with the case, 11 and the medical reports of Kathryn and Matthew which did not corroborate the type of 12 abuse alleged, as well as other claims, such as allegations that Davidson coerced him into 13 pleading. Dkt. 63-11-16 & 21-25.

14 After several unsuccessful appeals, the relevant facts of which will be discussed 15 throughout this order, Mr. Spencer's prison sentence was commuted to community 16 supervision in 2004 by then Governor Locke. Dkt. 63-18. Following his release from 17 prison, Kathryn and Matthew recanted their prior allegations of sexual abuse by Mr.
 18 Spencer. Dkt. 63-20. Hansen has not recanted his allegations of sexual abuse by Mr.
 19 Spencer. See Dkt. 54 & 54-1.

20 In 2009, the state court of appeals ruled Mr. Spencer could withdraw his Alford 21 plea of guilty based, in part, on two of the three victims' recantations, and vacated his 22 convictions. See Dkt. 63-20 & 22. The Washington State Supreme Court denied the 1 state's motion for discretionary review of the court of appeals 2009 decision. Dkt. 63-24.

2 In September 2010, the Superior Court of Washington for Clark County granted the Clark 3 County Prosecutor's motion to dismiss the charges against Mr. Spencer without 4 prejudice. Dkt. 63-26.

5 III. DISCUSSION

6 Krause argues that all remaining claims against her should be dismissed. See Dkt.
7 139. She maintains there is no evidence of conspiracy. Dkt. 139 at 5- 7. Krause also 8 argues that she is entitled to qualified immunity based on the existence of probable cause 9 and thus dismissal of claims for malicious prosecution, false arrest and false 10 imprisonment. Dkt. 139 at 7-10. She further argues that she is entitled to qualified 11 immunity because there is no genuine issue of material fact as to whether she coerced or 12 otherwise fabricated the victims' abuse allegations or other evidence. Id. at 10-19.
13 Additionally, she argues that she is entitled to qualified immunity for the alleged failure 14 to disclose evidence. Id. at 19-23. Finally, Krause argues that there is no genuine issue 15 of material fact that she proximately caused damages to Mr. Spencer. Id. at 23-24.

16 Mr. Spencer maintains that he has elicited evidence of a conspiracy to imprison 17 him, and Krause was involved. Dkt. 166 at 2-7. He also argues that Krause is not 18 entitled to qualified immunity based on probable cause because she did not rely on 19 reasonably trustworthy information, she coerced statements regarding abuse from the 20 children or she otherwise fabricated evidence of the abuse, and she knowingly withheld 21 relevant evidence or supplied false information to Curtis. Id. at 7-20. Spencer further 22 maintains that Krause is not entitled to qualified immunity based on the fabrication of 1 evidence for similar reasons she argues that Krause is not entitled to immunity based on 2 probable cause. Id. at 17-20. Additionally, Mr. Spencer maintains that Krause is not 3 entitled to qualified immunity for the failure to disclose evidence. Id. at 20-23. Finally, 4 Mr. Spencer argues Krause proximately caused his injury. Id. at 23.

5 A. Summary Judgment Standard

6 Summary judgment is proper only if the pleadings, the discovery and disclosure 7 materials on file, and any affidavits show that there is no genuine issue as to any material 8 fact and that the movant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(c).
 9 The moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law when the nonmoving party 10 fails to make a sufficient showing on an essential element of a claim in the case on which 11 the nonmoving party has the burden of proof. Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 12 323 (1986). There is no genuine issue of fact for trial where the record, taken as a whole, 13 could not lead a rational trier of fact to find for the nonmoving party. Matsushita Elec.
 14 Indus. Co. v. Zenith Radio Corp., 475 U.S. 574, 586 (1986) (nonmoving party must 15 present specific, significant probative evidence, not simply “some metaphysical doubt”).
 16 See also Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(e). Conversely, a genuine dispute over a material fact exists 17 if there is sufficient evidence supporting the claimed factual dispute, requiring a judge or 18 jury to resolve the differing versions of the truth. Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477
 19 U.S. 242, 253 (1986); T.W. Elec. Serv., Inc. v. Pac. Elec. Contractors Ass'n, 809 F.2d 20 626, 630 (9th Cir. 1987).

21 The determination of the existence of a material fact is often a close question. The 22 Court must consider the substantive evidentiary burden that the nonmoving party must

1 meet at trial – e.g., a preponderance of the evidence in most civil cases. Anderson, 477
2 U.S. at 254; T.W. Elec. Serv., Inc., 809 F.2d at 630. The Court must resolve any factual 3 issues of controversy in favor of the nonmoving party only when the facts specifically 4 attested by that party contradict facts specifically attested by the moving party. The 5 nonmoving party may not merely state that it will discredit the moving party’s evidence 6 at trial, in the hopes that evidence can be developed at trial to support the claim. T.W.
7 Elec. Serv., Inc., 809 F.2d at 630 (relying on Anderson, 477 U.S. at 255). Conclusory, 8 nonspecific statements in affidavits are not sufficient, and missing facts will not be 9 presumed. Lujan v. Nat'l Wildlife Fed'n, 497 U.S. 871, 888-89 (1990).

10 B. Qualified Immunity

11 To determine whether a defendant is entitled to qualified immunity from § 1983 12 claims is a two-step inquiry. Devereaux v. Abbey, 263 F.3d 1070, 1074 (9th Cir. 2001).
13 A Court must determine whether (1) a federal constitutional right has been violated, and 14 (2) even if a violation occurred, whether the right was clearly established at the time of 15 the challenged conduct sufficient to make a reasonable officer aware that he was 16 violating the right. Id.

17 The Court begins its discussion of qualified immunity with an analysis of whether 18 the evidence demonstrates that a genuine issue of material fact exists that Krause coerced 19 the children into accusing Mr. Spencer of abuse or otherwise fabricated evidence against 20 him regarding the abuse. The Court starts its analysis here because if genuine issues of 21 material fact exist as to the aforementioned issues, then more likely than not there will be 22 genuine issues of material fact related to Mr. Spencer’s claims that probable cause did not

1 exist, Krause was involved in the alleged conspiracy to imprison Mr. Spencer, and she 2 was a proximate cause of Mr. Spencer's injuries.

3 1. Alleged Fabrication of Evidence

4 “[T]here is a clearly established constitutional due process right not to be 5 subjected to criminal charges on the basis of false evidence that was deliberately 6 fabricated by the government.” Devereaux, 263 F.3d at 1074-75. To the extent that a 7 plaintiff raises a deliberate-fabrication-of-evidence claim, a plaintiff

8 must, at a minimum, point to evidence that supports at least one of the 9 following two propositions: (1) Defendants continued their investigation of 10 [the plaintiff] despite the fact that they knew or should have known that he 11 was innocent; or (2) Defendants used investigative techniques that were so 12 coercive and abusive that they knew or should have known that those 13 techniques would yield false information.

14 Devereaux, 263 F.3d at 1076. Evidence of deliberate misquotation and misrepresentation 15 of witness statements “are circumstantial methods of proving deliberate fabrication.”

16 Costantich v. Dep’t of Social and Health Services, 627 F.3d 1101, 1111 (9th Cir. 2010).

17 Krause argues she is entitled to qualified immunity because Mr. Spencer has not 18 demonstrated any genuine issue of material fact exists to show that Krause acted alone or 19 in concert with other defendants to violate Spencer’s constitutional rights by using 20 coercive interview techniques when interviewing Kathryn, Matthew and Hansen or by 21 deliberately fabricating statements and other evidence against Mr. Spencer. See, e.g., Dkt.
 22 139 at 3.

23 Mr. Spencer argues that there are factual issues about what, if anything, Kathryn 24 told Krause or her mother regarding the alleged abuse (see, e.g., Dkt. 166 at 8 and 19);

1 whether Krause deliberately fabricated Hansen's allegations of abuse (Id. at 13-15); 2 whether Krause coerced, deliberately fabricated or misrepresented some or all of the 3 alleged statements Matthew made about abuse by Mr. Spencer (Id. at 15-17 and 19).
4 Additionally, Spencer claims that Krause recorded a "false" score on Mr. Spencer's 5 polygraph test, thus fabricating further evidence against him. Id. at 17. Mr. Spencer also 6 maintains throughout that Krause knew or should have known that he was innocent but 7 continued her investigation. See Dkt. 166.

8       2. Coercive Interview Techniques

9       Mr. Spencer makes two types of deliberate fabrication of evidence claims: (1) that 10 Krause deliberately, grossly misquoted or misrepresented statements of abuse by the 11 alleged victims; and (2) that Krause used coercive interview techniques to manipulate the 12 alleged child victims into making false allegations of abuse against Mr. Spencer. See 13 Dkt. 166 at 13-19.

14       As to Mr. Spencer's claims that Krause used coercive interview techniques such 15 that she knew or should have known they would yield false information, as a matter of 16 law, the Court must find that Krause is entitled to qualified immunity for those claims.
17 Even though the Court may find improper some of Krause's methods used during 18 interviews of the three children, Mr. Spencer fails to cite any case demonstrating that in 19 1984 and 1985 a reasonable officer knew or should have known that, for example, 20 suggestive, leading or aggressive questioning of a child victim would yield false 21 information. Consistent with Devereaux, the Court finds in 1984 and 1985, and now, 22 "there is no constitutional due process right to have child witnesses in a child sexual

1 abuse investigation interviewed in a particular manner, or to have the investigation
 2 carried out in a particular way.” Devereaux, 263 F.3d at 1075. In 1984 and 1985, 3 Krause, like other “[i]nterviewers of child witnesses of suspected sexual abuse must be 4 given some latitude in determining when to credit witnesses' denials and when to 5 discount them, and we are not aware of any federal law-constitutional, decisional, or 6 statutory—that indicates precisely where the line must be drawn.” Id. Through citation to 7 recent Ninth Circuit case law, Krause has further demonstrated an absence of a genuine 8 issue of material fact as to whether she is entitled to qualified immunity for the alleged 9 use of coercive interview techniques, because, as Krause observes, in analyzing qualified 10 immunity:

11 we ask whether [the constitutional right to have a witness interviewed in a 12 particular way had] contours [which] were sufficiently clear that every 13 reasonable official would have understood that what he is doing violates 14 that right. (citations omitted). While we do not require a case directly on 15 point, …existing precedent must have placed the statutory or constitutional 16 question beyond debate.

17 Dkt. 171 at 2 (citing Mattos v. Agarano, 661 F.3d 433, 442-42 (9th Cir. 2011) (citations 18 omitted)). Mr. Spencer has cited no such precedent that would have placed Krause on 19 notice that her interview techniques were so coercive and abusive that she knew or should 20 have known they would yield false evidence thus putting them beyond constitutional 21 debate.

22 3. Deliberate Misquotation or Misrepresentation

23 As noted above, Mr. Spencer also claims that Krause deliberately fabricated 24 evidence by misquoting or misrepresenting what the alleged child victims said to her.
 25

1 See infra. Evidence of deliberate misquotation and misrepresentation of witness 2 statements “are circumstantial methods of proving deliberate fabrication.” Costanich v.
3 Dep’t of Social and Health Services, 627 F.3d at 1111. Under Costanich, while 4 “questions of tone or characterization” of witness statements or simple “misstatements” 5 in an investigator’s report are not evidence of deliberate fabrication, “actual 6 misrepresentations” or “[r]eporting that a witness said something she did not cannot be 7 ... characterized as a ‘misstatement.’” Costanich, 627 F.3d at 1113. In analyzing the 8 facts of Costanich, where witnesses disputed that they made statements the investigator 9 attributed to them through the use of quotation marks, the Ninth Circuit found that 10 purposeful use of quotation marks around purported witness statements in an 11 investigative report could support a trier of fact’s conclusion that the investigator 12 deliberately fabricated evidence. Costanich, 627 F.3d at 1112. Such actions may 13 illustrate “an investigator whose unlawful motivation is illustrated by her state of mind 14 regarding the alleged perpetrator’s innocence ....” Costanich, 627 F.3d at 1111. Thus, 15 evidence of deliberate misquotation and actual misrepresentations can demonstrate the 16 “Defendants continued their investigation of [the Plaintiff] despite the fact that they knew 17 or should have known that he was innocent.” Devereaux, 263 F.3d at 1076 (when 18 plaintiff raises a deliberate-fabrication-of-evidence claim, a plaintiff must, at a minimum, 19 point to evidence that supports at least one of the following two propositions, only one of 20 which is at issue here: whether the officer knew or should have known the plaintiff was 21 innocent but continued the investigation anyway).
22

1                   a.        Kathryn

2               When asked to review the six-page statement made by Shirley Spencer indicating 3 that on August 24, 1984, while they were lying on the living room floor, Kathryn told her 4 that she had been sexually abused by her father, Kathryn testified she had no recollection
5 of making those allegations to her step-mother, and she stated “I did not say those things 6 to her. These are Shirley’s words.” Dkt. 168-6 at 20 (November 14, 2012 Dep. of 7 Kathryn (Spencer) Tetz). Kathryn also testified that she has no memory of speaking with 8 Flood or James Rulli, his father’s attorney. Id. In her deposition, Kathryn further stated 9 that she would “have no knowledge of what these sexual acts are, so to be able to 10 describe them to [Shirley] isn’t even something I would have done.” Id. at 21-22. Then, 11 Kathryn goes on to testify that “I know I didn’t say these things to [Shirley]. I know 12 myself and I know the vocabulary I was capable of at this time and I did not say these 13 things to her.” Id. Although Kathryn admits that Shirley asked if Spencer had touched 14 her inappropriately, she maintains that occurred while they were in the laundry room in 15 the house by the river, not “laying on the floor in the living room” as all the reports 16 indicate. Id. at 23. However, Kathryn also testified “I don’t remember how I responded 17 [to Shirley],” and she indicated that “I somehow answered whatever it was that I 18 answered to her.” Id.

19               In addition, Kathryn denies having been abused, or at least that she doesn’t 20 remember the abuse occurring. In her November 14, 2012 deposition, she testified that 21 she “knew her whole life that [the abuse] had not happened.” Dkt. 168-6 at 3. Later in 22

1 reviewing her former testimony under oath, Kathryn agrees that her testimony now 2 remains the same:

3 I have absolutely no memory of my father ever having sexually abused me 4 or inappropriately touching me in any way whatsoever. I believe that if my 5 father had in fact engaged in the type of sexual abuse described in [Krause's] reports and in the charges brought against my father I would remember such actions.

6 Dkt. 168-6 at 4. She subsequently testifies once again: "I know that it did not happen."
7 Id. at 5. Kathryn further testified that contrary to Krause's reports, she felt 8 "uncomfortable" with Krause and found the anatomical "dolls" "disgusting," rather than 9 fun to play with. Id. at 7. She also stated that Krause "was a stranger to me and she got 10 me to agree with what she was telling me by rewarding me at the end of each session" by 11 giving her treats, such as sodas, ice cream, a sundae and hot chocolate. Id. at 6-8 and 13.

12 Based in part on the facts set forth above, Kathryn disputes that she told Shirley 13 she was abused and testified she would never even have used the words Shirley attributed 14 to her. Dkt. 168 at 20. However, Mr. Spencer presents no evidence disputing that 15 Kathryn was not interviewed by Detective Flood. Further, Detective Flood's report 16 indicates that Kathryn did tell him all the things that Shirley reported, thus corroborating 17 that abuse had occurred. Nonetheless, Flood also indicates that Kathryn "did tell Shirley 18 everything that Shirley advised me of but then when asked to explain it or asked specific 19 questions about it, [Kathryn] would say that she couldn't remember the words so she 20 couldn't tell me." Dkt. 158 at 11. Flood's report is vague in terms of what Kathryn 21 reported to him, it lacks any specific detail as to the words she used to described the

1 abuse, and it indicates Kathryn had a problem actually explaining any specifics because 2 she could not remember the words. Id.

3 Additionally, in Krause's reports, there are many quoted statements that 4 purportedly reflect exactly what Kathryn described as the abuse that was perpetrated by 5 her father. However, some of the vocabulary in the quotations is similar to that which 6 was used in Shirley's written report regarding Kathryn's alleged disclosures of abuse to 7 her, disclosures Kathryn disputes that she ever made to Shirley, in part contesting the 8 specific type of language used to describe the alleged incidents. See supra.

9 Similarly, the quoted language in Krause's reports, which depicts Kathryn as 10 describing in graphic detail sexual acts performed by her father, is inconsistent with 11 Kathryn's testimony that Krause would "[get] me to agree with what she was telling me" 12 (emphasis added), indicating that Krause was making the quoted statements and Kathryn 13 would agree with either some or all of them, rather than Kathryn herself providing the 14 graphic details of the alleged abuse and Krause simply quoting her.

15 As the above paragraphs demonstrate, a genuine issue of material fact exists (1) 16 because of the vagueness of Flood's report combined with Kathryn's testimony denying 17 that she disclosed abuse to Shirley and she would have used the vocabulary Shirley 18 attributed to her; (2) that the information and some of the vocabulary that Kathryn denies 19 having said to Shirley was similar to what Kathryn allegedly reported to Krause; and (3) 20 that Kathryn denies making the statements she is quoted as saying to Krause. Therefore, 21 construing all reasonable inferences in favor of the non-moving party, the evidence 22 shows a genuine issue of material fact as to whether Krause fabricated evidence, which

1 requires the jury to make credibility determinations about who they believe is being 2 truthful. Costanich, 627 F.3d at 1111 (“We have previously held that when genuine 3 issues of material fact arise regarding fabrication of evidence in a child abuse 4 investigative report, a police officer is not entitled to qualified immunity because 5 [c]redibility is an issue for the trier of fact”) (internal quotation and citation omitted).
6 Thus, the Court cannot grant qualified immunity on the basis that Krause did not 7 fabricate evidence because of the alleged deliberate misquotations or misrepresentations 8 of what Kathryn conveyed to Shirley and Krause. Costanich, 627 F.3d at 1111-1112.

9                   b. Matthew

10                 Spencer argues in part that Matthew’s deposition testimony indicates a genuine 11 issue of material fact exists as to whether Krause deliberately fabricated evidence in the 12 investigative reports, as Matthew has specifically testified that he did not make the 13 statements attributed to him. Dkt. 166 at 17. Krause interviewed Matthew on October 17, 14 1984, which records alleged statements made by Matthew, in part through the use of 15 quotations. Dkt. 168-5. In Matthew’s November 13, 2012 deposition, he refutes not only 16 the accuracy of Krause’s reports but also testifies that much of the content of her report 17 was not truthful. See Dkt. 168-5. For example, during the deposition counsel went 18 through many of the quotations included in Krause’s October 17, 1984 report, and 19 Matthew testified that whole statements were not his. See, e.g., Dkt. 168-5 at 50 and 51.
20 This report does not include any allegations that Mr. Spencer molested Matthew or that 21 Matthew witnessed Mr. Spencer sexually abusing Kathryn. See Dkt. 168-5 at 51-61.

1 However, Matthew testified that, during the interview, Krause “insisted that I was 2 molested by my father.” Id. at 10.

3 Krause’s March 25, 1985 report indicates that during her interview with Matthew 4 on that same day, Matthew, then age nine, made allegations of abuse against his father.
5 See Dkt. 168-5 at 62-75. Again, to indicate what Matthew conveyed to her, Krause used 6 many quotations to reflect phrases or statements Matthew made relevant to the alleged 7 abuse. For example, she quotes him as stating that his father “put his penis in my bottom 8 and in Kathryn’s bottom and in Kathryn’s front hole and he puts it in Little Matt’s, 9 [Hansen], bottom, and that really hurts us, and I hate him.” Dkt. 168-5 at 68. Krause 10 also quotes Matthew as describing how his father forced them to touch each other, for 11 example, by stating, “He sticks his penis in our bottoms and he makes us stick our fingers 12 in each other’s bottoms, and he always makes us lick on Kathryn.” Id. at 69. Similarly, 13 Krause quotes Matthew as stating, “Me and Little Matt, [Hansen], have to put our penises 14 in Kathryn’s bottom, and in her vagina.” Id. Krause also quotes Matthew as describing 15 how his father forced them all to have oral sex with him; according to Krause, Matthew 16 said, “I have to suck his penis. We all have to do that.” Id.

17 During Matthew’s November 13, 2012 deposition, he denies that the statements 18 attributed to him in Krause’s March 25, 1985 report are true. Id. at 14. After reviewing 19 the statements attributed to him that are in her report, Matthew testified: “None of these 20 are true. My father did not molest me so these are not true.” Id. He also testified that “I
21 didn’t know what those words were. I don’t know what a vagina is at age 8, I don’t know 22 what a penis is at age 8.” Id. at 17. Matthew further testified that many, if not all, the

1 statements in Krause's March 25, 1985 report were Krause's words not his. See, e.g., 2 Dkt. 168-5 at 43-49. Instead, Matthew testified that he did not describe sexual events to 3 Krause, rather she described them to him, and he indicated that at least some, if not most, 4 of the quotations in the report were what Krause told him and, ultimately, he just agreed.
 5 Id. at 49 and 167.

6       However, as Krause correctly observes in her response brief, Matthew's 7 deposition testimony is inconsistent with his prior sworn testimony under oath at a 8 hearing and a prior declaration. Dkt. 171 at 7-8.

9       While Matthew Spencer does now deny that abuse occurred, he has flatly 10 contradicted himself under oath on multiple occasions regarding the 11 disclosures of abuse he made to Ms. Krause as documented in her reports.
 12 He swore under oath in his recantation Declaration (Dkt. 140-5, P. 34 of 48, 13 lns. 14-16 (emphasis added)): "While I believe that I did tell her the things 14 written in the report attributed to me about my father sexually abusing me, 15 none of it is true." Yet in his sworn deposition testimony (Docket 140-5, P.
 16 29 of 48, ln. 12-P. 30 of 48, ln. 6 (emphasis added)) Matt Spencer testified: 17 "Well, I didn't tell her the things written. They were told to me and I agreed 18 to them." He also testified, however, that he did tell Ms. Krause of abuse 19 "in detail," including "that [plaintiff] put his penis in my butt, that I put my 20 penis in his butt." Dkt. 168-5, P. 14 of 75, ln. 23-P. 16 of 75, ln. 18. Making this contradiction worse, Matt Spencer's Declaration concluded with the affirmative representation under oath that "I have carefully reviewed every line of this declaration for accuracy. It is all true to the best of my knowledge and I am willing to go to court and swear to these facts before a judge." Docket 140-5, page 35 of 48, lines 13-16 (emphasis added). Yet when asked in his deposition why he didn't clarify in his recantation Declaration that he claims he never told Ms. Krause about the abuse but only agreed with what she told him, he said of his review of the declaration before signing: "I scanned it. Q. What does that mean? Did you or didn't you read it from start- A. I didn't study it no. I didn't study it." Dkt. 140-5, P. 30 of 48, lns. 10-15 (emphasis added).

21 Dkt. 171 at 7-8.

1 There are inconsistencies in Matthew's recent testimony and between his recent 2 testimony as well as his prior testimony and declaration; these inconsistencies may 3 indeed undermine his credibility. However, whether Matthew is to be believed, to what 4 extent, or as to what subject matter is for a jury to determine. The Court finds there is a 5 genuine issue of material fact as to whether Krause deliberately misquoted or 6 misrepresented the alleged statements of Matthew. Thus, because there is a genuine issue 7 of material fact as to whether or not she fabricated evidence, Krause is not entitled to 8 qualified immunity.

9 c. Hansen

10 Unlike Kathryn or Matthew, Hansen has not recanted his allegations of sexual 11 abuse.<sup>3</sup> Nor is there any deposition or other testimony from Hansen accusing Krause of 12 fabricating the information he supplied to Krause about his father sexually abusing him.

13 However, given that (1) Kathryn and Matthew have recanted the abuse allegations, 14 even though Krause's report alleges that Hansen, at age four, stated that he witnessed Mr.
 15 Spencer abusing Kathryn and Matthew, and (2) there are genuine issues of material fact 16 regarding whether Krause fabricated Kathryn and Matthew's allegations of abuse, there is 17 also a genuine issue of material fact regarding whether Krause fabricated Hansen's 18 allegations. See, e.g., Dkt. 168-12 at 17-25. Thus, Krause is not entitled to qualified

19

21 <sup>3</sup> Krause argues that a declaration by Mr. Spencer's counsel, which attaches but does not 22 authenticate notes prepared by an unidentified person which purport to contradict Hansen's 2009 sworn testimony that his father in fact abused him, is inadmissible hearsay. Dkt. 171 at 6 n.3.
 The notes referenced are inadmissible hearsay and are stricken pursuant to 56(c)(2).

1 immunity with respect to whether she fabricated Hansen's allegations of abuse against 2 Mr. Spencer.

3 C. Probable Cause

4 "Probable cause exists where the facts and circumstances within [the 5 officers'] knowledge and of which they had reasonably trustworthy information [are] 6 sufficient in themselves to warrant a [person] of reasonable caution in the belief that an 7 offense has been or is being committed." Stoot v. City of Everett, 528 F.3d 910, 918
 8 (2009) (citing Brinegar v. United States, 338 U.S. 160, 175–76 (1949) (internal quotation 9 marks omitted); Ornelas v. United States, 517 U.S. 690, 696 (1996)). Further, "[b]ecause 10 many situations which confront officers in the course of executing their duties are more 11 or less ambiguous, room must be allowed for some mistakes on their part. But the 12 mistakes must be those of reasonable [people], acting on facts leading sensibly to their 13 conclusions of probability." Id. (citing Brinegar, 338 U.S. at 176).

14 Probable cause is a complete defense to claims of false arrest, false imprisonment
 15 and malicious prosecution. See Lassiter v. City of Bremerton, 556 F. 3d 1049, 1054-55
 16 (9th Cir. 2009).

17 Because there are genuine issues of fact regarding whether Krause fabricated
 18 evidence in the child victims statements, which was, in large part, what the Prosecutor's 19 Office relied on to find probable cause existed and to charge Mr. Spencer with multiple 20 counts of abuse (Dkt. 168-11 at 11 and 14), the Court cannot grant qualified immunity on 21 the basis that probable cause exists and must deny summary judgment on Krause's claims 22 for false arrest, malicious prosecution and false imprisonment. See supra.

1     D.     Disclosures of Evidence

2           Krause argues she is entitled to qualified immunity for failure to disclose alleged 3 Brady material. Dkt. 139 at 19-23. Mr. Spencer claims that Krause is not entitled to 4 qualified immunity for failure to disclosure multiple items of Brady material. Dkt. 166 at 5 20. The items at issue are Roe's report, Kathryn's medical report, Hansen's medical 6 report, and the videotaped interview of Kathryn. Id.

7     1.     Roe's Report

8           It is undisputed that the Prosecutor's Office possessed Roe's report. Further, as 9 the Court has concluded, Mr. Spencer is collaterally estopped from litigating whether 10 Roe's report was unconstitutionally withheld. See supra. Additionally, despite the fact 11 that Krause was aware of Roe's report, Mr. Spencer provides no evidence or case law to 12 support that the failure to disclose Roe's report in anyway creates § 1983 liability for 13 Krause, even assuming Roe's report was exculpatory and admissible evidence.

14     2.     Kathryn's Medical Report

15           As to the medical report of Kathryn, there is genuine issue of material fact as to 16 whether the Prosecutor's Office ever had this piece of evidence. It is undisputed that 17 Krause was aware of Kathryn's medical report and had it in her possession. Further, 18 discrepancies exist between Krause's two evidence indices sent to the Prosecutor's Office 19 in the Spencer case, the first of which documents the existence of Kathryn's medical 20 report and the second of which deletes the report from the index. Dkts. 164-4 at 24 and 21 27. During her recent deposition, Krause was unable to account for the discrepancies in 22 the indexes (Dkt. 168-4 at 8) and provided testimony effectively indicating that she was

1 not sure whether Kathryn's medical report made it to the Prosecutor's Office. See id. at 9-2 10. The foregoing information is sufficient to create a genuine issue of material fact as to 3 whether Kathryn has liability for failure to disclose Kathryn's medical report.

4 3. Hansen's Medical Report

5 With regard to Hansen's medical report, during a prior proceeding the Court 6 found that the Sheriff's Office never received a copy of his medical report. Dkt. 63-15.
 7 Although Mr. Spencer presents some evidence indicating that, while the Sheriff's Office 8 did not receive the report, Krause was aware of the report's existence (Dkt. 166 at 20).
 9 Shirley testified that Krause recommended Hansen be examined. Id. Krause admits her 10 normal practice was to refer parents to have their children examined. Dkt. 168-3 at 4 11 (May 22, 1996 Habeas Deposition of Sharon Krause). In a prior proceeding, Shirley was 12 asked whether, as a part of the investigation, she was referred to take Hansen to have a 13 medical exam. Shirley responded affirmatively and indicated that "Sharon Krause" "told 14 her to go." Dkt. 168-15 at 40 (June 4, 1996, Habeas Deposition of Shirley Spencer).
 15 Additionally, in her deposition, Shirley testified to the following:

16 Q. Did you discuss with either Sergeant Davidson or Detective 17 Krause the fact that Matt had been examined?

18 A. I'm sure I did because they told me to go.

19 Q. Do you remember signing any kind of a release or a waiver 20 for the Clark County Sheriff's office to allow them to get Matt's medical 21 records?

22 A. I don't remember it, but I probably would have if they'd asked 23 me to, but I don't remember it.

Dkt. 168-15 at 41.

1 In Shirley's more recent deposition, she confirms that Krause told her to take 2 Hansen in for a medical exam, and she did so (Dkt. 140-1 at 52-53). She also testified 3 that she told Krause she had taken Hansen for an exam, but Shirley indicates that she 4 didn't have the medical report and stated, "Well, I didn't know the medical findings. I just 5 said [to Krause] I had taken him. And all I know is what [the doctor] said that it was hard 6 to tell [if Hansen was abused], but he didn't tell me the results." Id. at 53. However, this 7 time, Shirley testifies that she didn't know if Davidson knew about the medical exam. Id.

8 If Krause followed her usual practice and she and Shirley did indeed talk about the 9 results of the exam, Krause would have been aware that a doctor would have produced 10 some record of Hansen's examination, as Krause dealt with child sexual abuse cases 11 regularly. That Krause apparently did not collect the report itself, as it was not in the 12 possession of the Sheriff's Office, but rather Krause just listened to whatever Shirley told 13 her, could lead a reasonable juror to infer that Krause deliberately failed to collect 14 relevant evidence that was common place for detectives to review in child abuse cases.

15 4. Videotaped Interview of Kathryn

16 It is undisputed that the videotaped interview of Kathryn by Peters was not 17 disclosed to the defense and was stored in Krause's garage. Although Peters was aware of 18 videotape's existence, neither Peters nor Krause have any independent memory about 19 what happened to it after the interview.<sup>4</sup> Dkts. 140-5 at 44- and 140-2 at 9. As Krause

20 21 <sup>4</sup> In the Court's order on Peter's motion for summary judgment, it found Peters was 22 entitled to absolute immunity for the interviewing of Kathryn Spencer and for failure to disclose that item of evidence. See Dkts. 174 and 179.

1 notes, she “testified that she has no knowledge or recollection of the whereabouts of the 2 tape until she discovered it in a box of materials in her garage in 2009 which were 3 included materials she packed up and took with her when she retired in 1995, that she 4 immediately viewed it and called Clark County Deputy Prosecutor Denny Hunter to 5 report its existence, and mailed the original to Mr. Hunter the same day.” Dkt. 139 at 21 6 (citing Dkt. 140-2 at 9-10).

7 Given the above, there is a genuine issue of material fact as to (1) whether Krause 8 failed to disclose the videotaped interview of Kathryn Spencer, as that item could 9 reasonably be construed as exculpatory evidence, even if cumulative of evidence already 10 disclosed, and (2) the medical reports of Kathryn and Hansen, items that arguably have 11 exculpatory value for Mr. Spencer. Thus, qualified immunity is denied.

12 E. Conspiracy

13 A conspiracy in violation of § 1983 requires proof of: (1) an agreement between 14 the defendants to deprive the plaintiff of a constitutional right; (2) an overt act in 15 furtherance of the conspiracy; and (3) an actual deprivation of constitutional rights 16 resulting from the agreement. Avalos v. Baca, 596 F. 3d 583, 592 (9th Cir. 2010); 17 Gausvik v. Perez, 239 F. Supp. 2d 1047, 1104 (E.D. Wash. 2002). Although the 18 agreement or meeting of the minds need not be overt but can be based upon 19 circumstantial evidence, some admissible evidence as opposed to speculation is required 20 to support the conspiracy claim and each participant must share the common objective of 21 the conspiracy. Crowe v. County of San Diego, 608 F.3d 406,440 (9th Cir. 2010).

1 Mr. Spencer's theory is that Krause conspired with Davidson for the common 2 purpose of imprisoning him, and Krause continued the investigation when she knew he 3 was innocent to "further her career" and to "avoid civil liability for fabricating Kathryn's 4 allegations." Dkt. 166 at 4. Mr. Spencer assigns to Davidson a different motive for 5 conspiring to imprison him, i.e. so he could pursue his romantic relationship with Mr.
6 Spencer's then-wife, Shirley. Id. at 4.

7 Krause maintains there is no genuine issue of material fact as to whether she 8 conspired with Davidson to imprison Mr. Spencer. Dkt. 139 at 5-7. Krause argues there 9 is no direct evidence of conspiracy, and "[j]ust as it is not reasonable or rational to infer 10 an intent to conspire to further a love interest which does not exist [between Davidson 11 and Shirley], it is not reasonable or rational to infer that law enforcement officer or 12 prosecutor would conspire to frame an innocent man based upon a belief that doing so 13 would somehow enhance their career." Id. at 6-7. Thus, according to Krause, the 14 conspiracy claim should be dismissed. Id. at 7.

15 According to the uncontested testimony of Shirley, she and Davidson met on 16 September 21, 1985, when Mr. Spencer took his first polygraph test. Dkt. 168-1 at 12.
17 Based on past and recent deposition testimony and responses to interrogatories, Krause 18 has provided some equivocal testimony as to when she first knew of Davidson and 19 Shirley's relationship. Krause has testified that "My recollection of [the relationship] is 20 that when I became aware of that, it was long after I interviewed Little Matt. And I don't 21 remember if it was before [Mr. Spencer] pled or after, to be honest with you." Dkt. 168-3 22 at 10 (May 22, 1996 Habeas Deposition of Shirley Spencer). In a recent set of

1 interrogatories to Krause, however, she is able to definitively recall when she found out 2 about the relationship: Krause states “There is absolutely no doubt in my mind that if at 3 any time during the Spencer investigation I became concerned or aware that the 4 relationship between Michael Davidson and Shirley Spencer was anything other than 5 professional, I would have responded in the same way I did in the past, and would have 6 immediately reported it to the Sheriff.” Dkt. 140-1 at 5. Krause’s recent deposition 7 testimony on the same topic is consistent with the answer that she provided in her 8 interrogatories regarding the relationship between Davidson and Shirley. Dkt. 140-2 at 9 58 and 59.

10 According to Mr. Spencer, after his February arrest, when he was in the county 11 jail, Davidson made unwanted visits to him on multiple occasions, once told Mr. Spencer 12 that Shirley no longer loved him, and also almost got into a physical confrontation with 13 Mr. Spencer. Dkt. 168-2 at 20 -22 (November 12, 2012 Deposition of Mr. Spencer).
14 Lynda Harper (“Harper”), a former employee of the Sheriff’s Office, states that she 15 “recalls one officer in particular, whose name I cannot recall who came to see Mr.
16 Spencer on a number of occasions.” Dkt. 168-15 at 29 (Declaration of Lynda Harper).
17 Among other memories, she also recalls that Mr. Spencer did not want to see this officer 18 at times, and that there was a problem with this officer continually coming to see him. Id.
19 Davidson testified that he does not recall ever visiting Mr. Spencer in jail. See, e.g., Dkt.
20 168-15 at 12 (July 25, 1996 Habeas Deposition of Michael Davidson).

21 Sometime prior to March 15, 1985, Shirley has testified that she brought to the 22 Sheriff’s Office the quitclaim deed to the house in which she and Mr. Spencer lived. Dkt.

1 168-1 at 13. As Krause observes, in Shirley's deposition, she testifies that it was 2 Davidson, not Krause who took the deed to Mr. Spencer. Regarding the deed, Shirley 3 testified:

4 A: I was [at the Sheriff's Office]. I gave it to Sharon. Sharon 5 asked Mike if he would take it up. He took it up. He came back and gave it back and said he wouldn't sign it.

***

6 Q. At any other time are you aware of whether Sharon Krause
7 or—whether Sharon Krause got any documents in to Ray Spencer at the jail?

8 A. I have no clue.

9 Dkt. 138-2 at 13. However, on March 15, 1985, the deed was signed and notarized. Dkt.
10 168-15 at 34-37. Mr. Spencer maintains that his signature on the deed was forged. Id. at 11 33. Additionally, Marina Landrum, the notary public employed by the Sheriff's Office 12 from 1971 to 1991, was also unable to verify her signature on the deed. Dkt. 147 at 1. In 13 her declaration, Landrum indicates that she has no memory of ever being called up to the 14 jail to notarize the signature of an inmate on a quitclaim deed or any other document. Id.

15 In June 1985, Shirley filed for divorce from Mr. Spencer. Dkt. 168-1 at 26.

16 Davidson and Shirley have testified that their relationship began in June 1985 after Mr.
17 Spencer entered his plea, on May 16, 1985 (Dkt. 63-7), when they started seeing each 18 other socially. Dkts. 168-1 at 25 (November 6, 2012 Deposition of Shirley Spencer) and 19 140-1 at 15 (November 5, 2012 Deposition of Michael Davidson). They have testified that they moved in together in the fall of 1985. Dkt. 168-1 at 24 and 140-1 at 15.

20 While the record does not reveal direct evidence contradicting Shirley and 21 Davidson's testimony about when their relationship began, it does demonstrate some 22 circumstantial evidence that, when viewed in a light most favorable to the non-moving

1 party, could lead a rational juror to infer that Shirley and Davidson were involved, even if 2 not in a full-fledged romantic relationship, before June 1985. For example, the difference 3 between Krause's testimony in the aforementioned depositions regarding when she 4 became aware of their relationship, the contested testimony that Mr. Spencer was visited 5 by Davidson multiple times or at least once regarding the quitclaim deed, and that the 6 quitclaim indeed may contain forged signatures.

7 Given (1) that Davidson was Krause's supervisor, and thus he was a person who 8 could potentially impact Krause's career, (2) that there is ambiguity about when Krause 9 knew of Davidson's relationship with Shirley, (3) that Davidson and Shirley were 10 involved at least by June 1985 and moved in together that fall, (4) that there are genuine 11 issues of material fact as to whether Krause fabricated evidence against Mr. Spencer as 12 well as deliberately concealed exculpatory evidence,<sup>5</sup> and construing all reasonable 13 inferences in favor of the non-moving party, the Court finds there is a genuine issue of 14 material fact as to whether Davidson and Krause conspired to imprison Mr. Spencer.

15 F. Proximate Cause

16 Because there are genuine issues of material fact as to whether Krause fabricated 17 evidence and engaged in a conspiracy to imprison Mr. Spencer, a genuine issue of 18 material fact also exists regarding whether or not Krause was a proximate cause of his 19 alleged injuries.

20
 21
 22 <sup>5</sup> Fabrication of evidence and deliberately concealing exculpatory evidence are actions which, if true, could qualify as overt acts in furtherance of a conspiracy.

IV. ORDER

Therefore, it is hereby ORDERED that Krause's motion for summary judgment (Dkt. 139) is GRANTED in part as to the qualified immunity for (1) failure to disclose Roe's report, (2) conspiring to conceal such evidence, (3) using coercive interview techniques, and (4) conspiring to use coercive interview techniques for the purposes of framing and imprisoning Mr. Spencer or for any other purpose. Those claims are DISMISSED with prejudice. Krause's motion is DENIED in part as to the remainder of claims.

Dated this 21st day of August, 2013.
